

young entrepreneur market

Real world selling experience for K-12 students

Sept. 10 - Omaha, NE

Put your innovative skills to the test!

If you have creative, income-generating ideas that you're itching to share, then now is your time to shine. This youth marketplace will be held at the Nebraska Afterschool Conference in Omaha, NE.

Student entrepreneurs will have the opportunity to sell their handmade goods at this marketplace to afterschool professionals participating in the event.

Who We Are

The Young Entrepreneur Market is a part of the "GetConnected" Nebraska Department of Education Statewide Afterschool Conference.

For more information about this conference and conference partners, visit:
<https://www.education.ne.gov/21stccle>

What You'll Do

- SELL your goods at the marketplace
- CONNECT with other young entrepreneurs from across the state
- RECEIVE on-site guidance and coaching from entrepreneurial college students

Who Can Apply

- K-12 students who reside in Nebraska

Ready to apply?

- Email Lauren Mott and request an application: lmott@nebraskachildren.org
- Application materials are due by August 10, 2021

